DENISE COTE, District Judge:

At the request of the parties, trial in this case has been adjourned to June 14, 2021. Pursuant to an Order of August 11, defense counsel wrote on September 26 regarding their efforts to review discovery material and/or discuss the defendant's desire to proceed to trial with their clients.

In-person visits with detained defendants have resumed at the institutions in which the defendants are incarcerated. The standard length of those visits is one hour, but defense counsel can schedule longer visits by contacting legal counsel at the facility. As several letters reflect, defense counsel may consult with the U.S. Attorney's Office for assistance in presenting electronic discovery material to incarcerated clients. Should a defendant wish to enter plea negotiations, counsel are encouraged to contact the Government, as it appears several have already done. Counsel are hereby REMINDED that the August 11 Order requires any defendant who wishes to proceed to trial to advise the Court of that desire no later than November 6, 2020.
